

to those who are interested in starting this program in their Lodges and to those who are already providing this wonderful association. Be a friend and example to these young people and potential Elks. What a great way to perpetuate the ideals of Elkdom and to bring new, like-minded Americans into our Order as they become of age.

“Involving our young people in promoting the family unit, patriotism and service to mankind.”

Go to the ANTLERS page on the Grand Lodge website, scroll to the bottom and you will find the Grand Lodge Youth Activities COMMITTEE PERSON overseeing the Antlers Program.

Elks Care — Elks Share

The Antlers Program is open to those from the ages of 12–20. The information necessary to establish an Antlers Lodge may be found on the Grand Lodge website.

Getting Started

Go to the Grand Lodge website (www.elks.org).

Access the YOUTH ACTIVITIES icon.

*Under YOUTH ACTIVITIES, access the ANTLERS icon.

*Under ANTLERS, access the DOCUMENTS section.

Develop a list of charitable and social activities for the Antlers to be involved in.

Interact with established Antlers Programs and seek their help and advice.

Also, under the GRAND LODGE YOUTH ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE icon, you will find the YOUTH SUPERVISION GUIDE, #512200. This may be copied from the website or ordered from the Grand Lodge. This document is designed to offer guidelines to the Lodge when there is interaction between young people and the volunteer adults and membership of the Lodge.

These young Antlers provide an excellent, new source of energy for the Lodge. Whether assisting in Lodge benevolent programs or establishing new ones of their own, the Antlers will serve as a positive supplement to the efforts and the image of the Lodge.

The Antlers Program is one of the most exciting offerings of the Grand Lodge Youth Activities Committee. As Elks, we should cherish the opportunity to influence these young people in a positive way so that they may learn to lead more fruitful adult lives. Lend your support

One of the primary reasons for the continued existence of our Order is that of providing opportunities for the young people of our communities to be involved in wholesome activities that serve as alternatives to the negative influences of their idle time. As Elks, we must be active in promoting the philosophies of the family unit, patriotism and service to our fellow man. What better way to instill these attributes in our young people than by establishing an Antlers Lodge within your own Lodge? What better way to transmit our beliefs in country, veterans and public service than by teaching our young people through an organization such as the Antlers? What better source of new Elks than those who have passed through this program and have been immersed in those vital values that have made America the fantastic place that it is?
